PROCEDURE AFTER APPLICATION SUBMISSION:

Selection committee of HDLU will consider all received applications, select and make program proposal for 2024. Proposed program will be published on HDLU web site latest by 30 July 2023. Results of the competition are not binding for the HDLU. Project realization depends on secured funding for the project and about the availability of Meštrović's pavilion, i.e. individual galleries due to the tentative complete renovation of the building. After passing the proposal of the program, HDLU submits applications for funding in September/October 2023. All the selected applicants are encouraged to apply for additional funding (production, accommodation, transport of the works and daily allowances...) in their own countries. Upon receiving the results on the financing of the project (expected at the end of February 2024 at the latest), HDLU considers whether the provided funds are sufficient for the realization of the project. The final decision on inclusion in the program is made by HDLU no later than April 2024, and together with the project proponents, it defines the implementation date as well as all other details related to the execution of the project.

EXCLUSION OF OBLIGATIONS:

Suggested budget, timing and duration of the project are not binding for HDLU since they depend on the amount of secured funding. Once the program is confirmed, HDLU will in collaboration with the project applicant arrange all the details regarding budget, timing and duration.

COMMUNICATION:

During the selection process, process of applying for funds and final realization of the program, HDLU will communicate only with the project applicant according to the contacts listed in application form.
